PROFILE

As a Contracts Manager with 16 years' experience, I've worked across every stage of construction—from planning and drawings to final finishes. Our approach is family-focused and relationship-driven, built on trust, clear communication, and long-term partnerships. I oversee and coordinate projects from start to finish, working closely with clients and professional teams to ensure efficient delivery and high-quality results. Organised and adaptable, I thrive under pressure and consistently meet deadlines without compromising professionalism.
